The General Assemblies shall in the future never take place during a session week of the European Parliament when many parents have to be absent from Brussels for work reasons. Many of the undersigned cannot take part on 1 February 2016 and do not wish to be excluded in future years.

Beaucoup des signataires de cette proposition ne peuvent pas participer le 1<sup>er</sup> février et ne désirent pas d'être exclus dans des futures années.

Explanatory note / informations complémentaires:

This could be considered as a problem of a small minority, but we are not a small minority. There are around 5500 people working in the European Parliament in Brussels, parliamentary assistants included. The Commission employs 17400 people in Brussels, to compare with. Even a number of Commission colleagues travel regularly to Strasbourg as their work is linked to the EP plenary. The number is sufficiently large to take the working calendar of Parliament into consideration. For information, the calendar of 2016 is annexed to this proposition.

Many of the undersigned have participated in past assemblies and would like to participate in the future. This is a useful event to gather information and to participate in the work of the school. It is also very difficult to present yourself as a candidate while being absent.
