Motivation:

Since last year, I have been an active member in the APEEE Well-being and SEN Working Groups. I have thus had the occasion to meet and work more closely with other dedicated parents on issues that address the overall well-being of our children in school, or concern children with specific educational needs.

It is encouraging and praiseworthy that teams of parents have succeeded in bringing forward ideas, contributed to the realisation of various projects within the school or facilitated the dialogue with the school management with a view to create concrete actions for the benefit of our children.

If I am elected Member of the Board, I will reinforce my support to these working groups, as coordinated effort is much needed in order to continue shaping the school community environment where our children's best interests represent indeed a priority.
