Motivation:

I am an enthusiastic parent of 2 children who have been attending EEB 4 from about 5 years.

I have a solid educational background and a great passion for teaching and education, being the third generation of teachers in my family.

As a highly dedicated teacher and based on my previous experience of working with children (in primary, secondary and high-school), I strongly believe that my experience is in line with the educational values of EEB 4.

In an increasingly interconnected and interdependent world, full of challenges for us and especially for our children, in a continuous evolution and dynamic, I believe that the active involvement and constructive link between the components -" school – family -student" - are the key to the success of any educational approach.

I hope that my experience will contribute to the continuous improvement and development of our school's educational environment.
