

You better watch out
(for your stuff)

There's no need to cry
(it's probably in the Eureka room)

You better not pout
(they've got you covered)

We're telling you why

Eureka elves have been coming to school

They've made their list
(and some videos)

And have checked it twice (more like a dozen times)

You surely get the gist

There are things that are too nice (to be forgotten)

Eureka elves have been coming to school

They know who has been labelling (thank you, it helps a lot)

They know what you have lost

Your stuff they have been tabling (and sorting and hanging)

So come pick it up at all cost (in the basement of the J building)

You better watch out (for the opening hours)

There's no need to cry (elves will help you on Tuesdays and Fridays)

Just come check it out (8:30 to 14:30)

We're telling you why

Eureka elves have been coming to school
