Motivation:

I have a strong interest in education and in supporting the school community through active parental involvement. Having experience working with children, and being board member from 2 years, I value cooperation and open communication between school, parents, and students.

As a teacher, I pay particular attention to the quality of the educational process and to how teaching methods, assessment, and school practices respond to students' learning needs and well-being.

I am currently involved in the Pedagogical WG, being backup for the Vice-President and I also ensure the group's secretariat, which allows me to contribute in a practical, organized, and reliable way to the group's activities.

I am motivated to remain actively involved and to support constructive initiatives that contribute to a positive, inclusive, and collaborative school environment.
